

Kate Brown de Vejar

Kate Brown de Vejar is a Partner and Global Co-Chair of International Arbitration at DLA Piper. An Australian and New York qualified attorney, resident in Mexico City for the past 12 years, she has represented clients in a wide range of commercial and investor-state arbitrations.

Kate is Vice-President of the LCIA's Latin American Users' Council, Co-Chair of the IBA's Subcommittee on Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards, and a member of ICCA's Initiatives Committee. She is also Vice President of ANZMEX (the Australia, New Zealand, Mexico Business Council). From 2008-2016, she was a member of the Australian Delegation to UNCITRAL Working Group II on Arbitration and Conciliation. Who's Who Legal 2020 lists Kate amongst its most highly regarded arbitration practitioners, both globally and in Mexico. A graduate of Harvard Law School and the University of Queensland, Kate is fluent in English, French and Spanish.