

Hilary Heilbron QC

Hilary Heilbron QC focuses on international arbitration, sitting frequently as an international arbitrator all over the world with over 100 appointments as arbitrator (party nominated and chair) both under the main arbitral institutions and ad hoc in many very substantial cases. As a leading commercial counsel she has a wealth of experience of major commercial disputes and foreign laws with appearances in the Supreme Court, House of Lords and Privy Council.

She is a member of various international task forces on current topics in international arbitration and a former member of the LCIA Court and the ICC UK Arbitration and ADR Committee. She has spoken and written widely on international arbitration and cross-border litigation and is the author of "A Practical Guide to International Arbitration in London".

She is also the biographer of "Rose QC", the remarkable story of her mother, Dame Rose Heilbron, a trailblazer and legal icon of her time, re-issued in paperback in November 2019.
