

Michael Young QC

Michael Young QC is a Partner specialising in international arbitration. He is one of the leading practitioners globally, joining Quinn Emanuel from Allen & Overy (where he was Global Co-Head of their arbitration practice). He is Vice-President of the ICC Court of Arbitration.

Although experienced across all industry and market sectors, he has a specific focus on energy, manufacturing and infrastructure disputes. Those disputes have arisen worldwide, but with a particular focus on Africa, Asia and the Middle East. He has written and spoken widely on arbitration issues, as well as teaching at Sciences Po in Paris and at the University of London LLM program.

The leading directories have described him as an “outstanding” lawyer; having “the wit of a master, [who] knows ICC rules inside out, and never loses”; “he has perfect mastery of the rules of arbitration and procedure, as well as a spectacular ability to resolve cases”.
