

Brenda Horrigan

Brenda is Head of International Arbitration – Australia at Herbert Smith Freehills, based in HSF's Sydney office. She is an Australian registered foreign lawyer admitted in Washington DC.

Brenda has some 20 years' experience in international arbitration. Her practice is multifaceted; she works as counsel on complex international commercial and investment treaty arbitration matters at both the arbitration and enforcement stages, and also sits as an arbitrator. She began her career as a transactional lawyer, and that background provides valuable insight for clients into the underlying commercial and contractual aspects of their disputes.

Brenda serves as the President of ACICA, is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Australia), and is listed on the panels of several arbitral institutions. She also served for several years as Global Adjunct Professor of Law at New York University Law School (Shanghai campus).

Brenda has practiced in the US, Paris, Moscow, Shanghai and now Sydney, and is consistently ranked in Chambers and in Global Arbitration Review's Who's Who: Legal as a leading arbitration practitioner.
