

Resolving Disputes on Major Projects

– Lessons Learnt from Recent Arbitration Proceedings

Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) and the Australian Bar Association (ABA) are pleased to invite you to attend a joint session focused on providing practical guidance on the effective resolution of disputes on major projects.

An experienced panel of speakers will discuss lessons learnt from their involvement in resolving disputes arising on major projects in the region. The discussion will cover issues arising as part of project inception and execution and during dispute management and resolution. Insights from a variety of different perspectives on what worked and what did not and what to look out for will be shared by panel members with the audience, who will also be invited to participate.
