

Sundowners with Sandgropers Ashurst and AFIA networking event – pathways to a career in arbitration

Ashurst is delighted to join with AFIA to convene this evening networking event after Day 4 of the Arbitration Week program.

The event includes a short presentation from Marina Kofman (Kofman Arbitration) based on her experience in arbitration.

Meet AFIA members and learn about membership of this truly international forum for young practitioners interested in arbitration.

Please join us once more for our sundowner networking event.
