CPD POINTS AVAILABLE*

The Australian Centre of International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Australia (Ciarb Australia) are delighted to invite you to the 2023 International Arbitration Conference: Following a Black Swan – Transformative thinking and what comes next for International Arbitration.

Our one day program features a keynote address from Kanaga Dharmananda SC, Quayside Chambers and will bring together eminent speakers from around the globe in eight stimulating sessions covering:

- Around the World and Back
- Offshore Projects (and Onshore Problems)
- Advocacy in Arbitration: A Deep Dive into Truly Persuasive Techniques
- Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG): Corporate Responsibility or State Responsibility?

- Conflict of Privilege Rules In International Arbitration: Blessing or Curse?
- Arbitration New Frontiers: AI, Sustainable Practices and other ideas
- GC Roundtable
- Why Arbitration? A Quiz and Pursuit of Glory

* CPD requirements across jurisdictions may differ. Practitioners are recommended to check the requirements in their jurisdiction. An application for approval with the Legal Practice Board of Western Australia is pending.
