

Challenges to Arbitrator Appointments: legal landscape and practical tips

Clayton Utz and Level Twenty Seven Chambers welcome you to this panel event on arbitrator appointments. The panel will debate topical themes in arbitrator appointments including disclosure, independence and impartiality.

The debate will be guided by a discussion of recent updates including the 2024 IBA Conflict Guidelines, case examples and the panellists' personal experience. The audience will leave with an understanding of the test applicable for appointment challenges in Australian-seated arbitrations, as well as a practical checklist of how to avoid and how to make challenges.
